

28th Annual Health Fair at Jain Center of Southern California

Another of Anekant Community Center's (ACC) annual health fair was arranged in conjunction with the Jain Center of Southern California (JCSC) on Sunday March 18th, 2018 at the Jain Center's cultural hall in Buena Park from 8am to 2pm.

Total of 204 patients took advantage of this free of charge community service. 76 patients were treated/checked for dental services. 13 mammograms were performed and more than 50 people went through EKG tests and 200 people had their blood tested for Lipid Profile or Total Cholesterol and sugar. All the patients were happy to see many doctors in the varieties of fields like Dentistry, Internal Medicine, Ophthalmology, Cardiology, Orthopedic, Dermatology, Nephrology, Urology, Pulmonology, etc. This annual event offers patients a very unique opportunity to be able to consult multiple medical and Surgical Specialists under one roof in a matter of hours!

A presentation was held around 11 am for few minutes where in Presidents of JCSC (Dr. Jasvant Modi) and ACC (Mr. Mahesh Wadher), Dr. Ramesh Kothari, the coordinator of the health fair and Mayor Pro Tem of Buena Park Arthur Brown addressed the participants and volunteers. Mayor Pro-Tem Arthur Brown of Buena Park visited the event with his wife. He has attended all the health fairs in the past too. He was very happy to witness the services provided by medical and non-medical personnel. Furthermore, he also was happy to see more and more Non-Indians taking advantage of these free services. The helping hands were provided by ABC school lead by Ms. Karen Denis, Lestonnac free clinic, students from KGI pharmacy school in Claremont, Indian Pharmacists Association lead by Ms. Tapsaya Desai and so many dedicated volunteers. Excellent breakfast and lunch were freshly cooked and provided to more than 100 volunteers and many patients.

This event was financially and in Kind supported by Drs. Jasvant and Meera Modi, Manu and Rika Shah of Sarva Mangal Family Trust, Nalini Shah Cancer fund, Kinna and Dr. Nitin Shah, Mahesh and Usha Wadher, Bharat and Sunila Shah and Drs. Ramesh and Alka Kothari.
